

SUMMER STATER

Vol. 6, No. 4 - July 30, 1943

FOLK DANCE WILL CLIMAX THE SUMMER SOCIAL PROGRAMS

Summer Session students will get their final opportunity to participate in the social program next Thursday, August 5, from 3 to 5 pm, at the Annual Folk Dance in the Women's Gymnasium.

Dancing of all types will be under the direction of Miss Clarice Dechent and Mrs. Blanche Drury, two experts in that field and members of the Summer Session instruction staff.

Accompanist for the specialized dancing will be Miss Spanenberg.

In addition to two hours of fun and entertainment, the student social chairmen promise a good supply of ration-free refreshments for everyone who attends.

For further information, call at the student body office, room 119, College Hall.

* * * *

WORKSHOP TO GIVE ITS CONCERT

Concluding six weeks of intensive training in the S. F. State Music Workshop, the best talent in that group will give its annual summer concert next week, according to William E. Knuth, director.

Plans call for an evening entertainment in John Muir auditorium with the orchestra to be composed of the best of the 140 junior and senior high school students enrolled in the workshop this summer.

The concert is free to those attending school this summer, and further details as to time and date may be obtained from the music office on the campus; no advance reservations are needed.

SUMMER SESSION GRADUATION SET FOR NEXT FRIDAY

Plans for an informal graduation for State's 40 students who will have won their degrees is being planned by Director P. F. Valentine for Frederic Burk auditorium, next Friday afternoon.

Dr. Alexander C. Roberts will address the graduates, and Dean Walter J. Noman, director of the summer session, will present the diplomas.

Mrs. Ella Mae Beseman and Myra Mae Chase, co-chairman of the summer session social activities, announce that graduates and faculty will be guests at a tea which will follow the commencement program.

Those receiving degrees and/or credentials at the conclusion of summer session include: Phyllis Bass, Roselinn Bates, Helen Bell, Ella Mae Beseman, Rhoda Cannon, Fannie Carter, Louise Chapin, Myra Mae Chase, Anna Davis, Alice Deden, Phyllis Emery, Gladys Gagos, Mary Gallagher, Walter Gallatin, Lois Grey, Lorraine Haas, Barbara Hansen, Helen Harris, Marjorie Hennemuth, Madge Martin.

Martha Burst, Margaret Kell, May McKeown, Jacqueline Manuel, Edith Moody, Warren Nattress, Anita Pak-ele, Ruth Pierce, Phyllis Renwick, Richard Schwab, Helen Smith, Shirley Wentz, Dave Freed, Margaret Bealy, Irene Cook, Rosalie Jacquet, Maxine Norman, Wilma Rockman, Veronica Schwellinger, Grace Wirick.

Opportunities for many of these graduates to obtain teaching positions are numerous, if they will call at the placement office regarding such employment.